Harlem Lad Shows Pluck in Bout with Summers.

HAS A SHADE THE BETTER

Knocked Down in First and Second Rounds, New Yorker Recovers Quickly and Goes After Opponent in Whirlwind Fashion-Briton in Distress at Close of Six Rounds.

Philadelphia, May 22.-After narrowly escaping a knockout in the second round, Tommy Murphy, the Harlem favorite, gave a great exhibition of pluck, endurance, and fighting ability in the six-round affair with Johnnie Summers, the English light-weight, to-night at the National Athletic Club, and at the finish of the sixth round Murphy was entitled to a shade the better of the milling.

The bout was one of the most sensational ever fought in this city. The ard; handi- Englishman dropped Murphy in the first, and then in the second floored Tommy with a terrific right, which landed plump on the jaw. Murphy rose dazed, but managed to wabble about until sae bell rang. Summers made no effort to follow > mers then had his entire work cut out again, and in this respect he lost the verdict. Murphy came up strong in the third, made an even break of the round, and then in the fourth and fifth gave the Englishman the worst of the milling. Summers tried hard to turn the dict in his favor in the last round. After stopping a hard right on the head, he went at Murphy in the same vicious manner, and in a whirlwind of exchanges he forced the Harlem lad to the ropes. But his bolt was shot then, and Tommy, > coming back, jabbed repeatedly to the The Briton was showing every sign of distress when the round ended, while Murphy appeared to be much stronger and entirely recovered from the hard punch he stepped with his jaw in the second round.
